MINISTER OF EDUCATION PAYS FIRST VISIT TO WAINWRIGHT

Hon. Perren Baker Has Busy Time In Town Thursday Last; Is Guest of Honor at U.F.A. Banquet, Addresses Teachers in Convention, and Speaks at Big Public Meeting in Evening.

Saying that he was proud to claim an actual "shoulder-rubbing" acquaintance with farming, having for years obtained his living from tilling the soil, the Hon. Perren Baker, sure got to the hearts of his hearers when he spoke at the banquet in the Grace Methodist church where he was the guest of the Wainwright local U. F. A. on the occasion of his visit to town on Thursday last.

Having been introduced by the chairman, Rev. N. Priestley, he said that what really counted in this work-a-day world from the economic standpoint was that each and all should become greater producers. The process of selling was at present costing too much and this was the point which had to be threshed out. He could not get away from the fact that he was a plain farmer speaking to a bunch of farm folk, and it was on those terms he felt free to express himself.

Continuing, the speaker said that he thought that possibly the members of the U. F. A. were developing a class consciousness, that he was convinced that such was a good thing; and he believed in the genuine worth of the movement because the demand today was for mobilisation. Time had been when the farmer produced nearly all he needed, but the trouble with that system was that the farmer also needed all the produced, but mechanical invention had changed the face of the world and its problems; so much so in fact that the country was dependent now upon transportation and mechanics generally.

The big thing and the great service which the U. F. A. could render, he said, was not economic or even political, it was the social and educational force which such a body could exert for the common interest and for the purpose generally. The big thing in life was understanding that right now was the only time worth worrying over. The past was gone and the future we might never see, but if all would strive to make the present more acceptable to live in our names would go down to posterity on the scroll of honor. After advocating greater use of the benefits of the Alberta university by the U. F. A. locals, the speaker closed amid great applause.

Over 100 were present at the well-filled tables, and the sharpened appetites kept a small army of willing ladies busy seeing that all left with "that satisfied feeling."

In addition to the guest of the day, other speakers were Mr. J. Clark and Mayor Lally who extended a civil welcome in a neat well-chosen speech.

The Rev. N. F. Priestley made an efficient chairman.

EMPLOYEES TO ACCEPT

WAGE REDUCTION

A Tentative agreement was reached last week end between the employees of the Grand Trunk Railway and the representatives of the company, whereby the men agree to accept provisionally the reduction in wages, with the understanding that if further negotiations alter the schedules of pay the company will see that any back money withheld is rendered. The agreement arrived at, in a general way, that the employees accept the reduced rates of pay put into effect in July last, subject to adjustment of any inequalities. The agreement was also subject to a reopening of the whole question of wages on fifteen days' notice from either side, when any further reconsideration would be taken up by representatives of the company and the employees. The reduction approximates twelve and a half per cent.

THANKSGIVING DAY AND ARMISTICE DAY CELEBRATED JOINTLY

Armistice Day and Thanksgiving Day are now both celebrated upon the same date, according to an Act entitled "An Act respecting Armistice Day," assented to and becoming law June 4, 1921.

This Act says that throughout Canada in each and every year the Monday in the week in which November 11 shall occur shall be a legal holiday, to be known as Armistice Day.

Further, the Act states that the holiday commonly called Thanksgiving Day, a day usually appointed in the month of October or November by proclamation as a day of thanksgiving to Almighty God, shall whenever appointed be proclaimed, and observed for, on Armistice Day.

Thanksgiving Day this year falls on Monday, November 7, Armistice Day will be celebrated on the same day.

Of the ore is commenced. In addition, vast quantities of the ore is lying loose on the ground, and all that is required is to remove it to the water front and ship it to the smelter. The Butterfield for the last 16 years have been residents of the Edmonton district, and in addition to the present find, discovered a vast deposit of cooking coal in the Brazeau country. This latter deposit has been proved by the diamond drill to contain $100,000,000 tons of coal suitable for the reduction of iron ore, and the finding of this field resulted in the sale of the mineral rights for a very large figure by the discoverers.

Mr. C. A. Bassett, of the Irona drug store and one time of Wainwright has now purchased the Cook drug store at Viking.

SECOND ANNUAL CONVENTION OF WAINWRIGHT INSPECTORATE TEACHERS

The teaching staff who are at present engaged under the different school boards in the Wainwright inspectorate assembled for their second annual convention to the number of eighty at the High School on Thursday last and in the two-days session accomplished much business as well as crowding in two or three entertaining features.

The formal opening of the proceedings was assisted by the address of welcome given the assembly by Mayor Lally, and after Inspector E. L. Fuller had been elected chairman, the gathering soon got down to business.

Matters of importance to the profession were discussed from many angles, and Mr. C. Laws, of Chauvin, held the platform for sometime advancing the aims and objects of the A.T.A.

The educational points of instruction and interest were taken up under both junior and sections, and lectures of real value were given by specialist teachers in the different subjects undertaken.

At the opening of the afternoon session on the first day the meeting was addressed by the Hon. Perren Baker, minister of education who while admitting it was his first appearance at a teachers' convention claimed to feel quite at home in his new capacity.

In a neat and well-delivered speech he exhorted his hearers to ever keep before them the sacredness of their calling, and the ultimate value to the world at large of their well-directed efforts on the rising generation.

In a heart-to-heart talk he showed how that teachers could materially assist in keeping the average attendance from 60 per cent, where it now stood to something nearer approaching the century mark by taking a more personal interest in the well and woe of their charges. Public opinion would be created by the teachers which would aid in keeping children attending school at least until they were ready to pass out of the public school grade.

He claimed that it only needed inspiration imbued into their charges which would make them wish to stay on until possibly the university was reached, and said that almost the greatest thing the

THE CATTLE EMBARGO

Writing to The Star from Shrewsbury, England on the above question, Mr. J. Brown a real Wainwright old-timer says: "Dear Sir—I have for the past two years followed with interest the comments on the embargo placed on Canadian cattle, and now that the British committee has raised the same on Canadian cattle, I am afraid that your ranchers and farmers will soon find to their sorrow that cattle raising will be a less profitable business than ever."

Our markets are at present glutted with beef and stocker cattle and values are falling daily, and we are expecting the top price to be around $10 per 100 lb live weight. For this season, I am afraid it will cost the shipper almost as much in freight for one animal alive as for five or six carcasses of frozen meat.

Would there not be more wisdom in your farmers' organisations getting together, forming companies to build abattoirs, and then sending us the dressed meats—either by air or by ship—here, Australia and New Zealand are doing this and their tags read "N.Z. Farmers' Packing Co., Ltd." etc.

Canterbury lamb, in famous, and sells like hot cakes; therefore, not something like the following: "Slaughtered in the Canadian Farmers' Abattoir, Wainwright, Alta." In any case, time will prove which is the better way to handle the whole proposition and I shall probably have the pleasure of seeing some of your cattle in this country, as I have the largest store cattle sales in the British Isles held right here in Shrewsbury. Possibly I may come across some of the old familiar "flying V's" or "T.V.'s."

"THAT RASCAL PAT" WELL PRESENTED BY LOCAL TALENT

A very pleasing concert and entertainment was given on Wednesday night last in the theatre under the auspices of the Lodge of the Lekebak degree L.O.O.F. The house being well filled with a large and appreciative audience.

The opening number was a pianoforte solo played by Mrs. B. Fraser with that refined touch always associated with her name. Mrs. C. Church following this with a pretty and tuneful song with excellent effect.

Rev. E. Maddocks, of Edgerton with Miss Maddocks his sister created an atmosphere of happy humor by the singing of a duet along the lines of pleasing comedy, and received a well-deserved encore.

Mr. F. Stott's cornet solo, in which he was accompanied by Mrs. Stott, was well rendered and the number demanded an encore.

Mrs. G. Hudson, accompanied by Mr. Fraser, sang a pretty song "Where the caravan has rested" and as was fully expected she received so hearty an ovation that she had to respond with an encore.

Mr. C. Young of Hughenden, ably sustained the lighter element of the vocal numbers, his comic song offerings, and monologues pleasing the audience so that the demand for encore was persistent; and his brother Mr. H. Young rendered very effectively "Mother Macrae", being accompanied by Mrs. Fraser.

A delightful surprise of the evening was Miss Lorraine, who was in excellent voice, and richly deserved the encore to which she responded. Her songs "A Dream" and "In the heart of a rose" were such as to test many of our musical tastes.

LARGE GATHERING IN THEATRE HEAR HEAD EDUCATIONAL DEPT.

Long before the start of the programme in the theatre on Thursday last, standing room was at a premium, their being possibly a record crowd of school trustees and teachers gathered to hear the Minister of the Provincial Education Department, Hon. Perren Baker on the live topics of the day regarding the special department of which he has charge.

Mr. E. L. Fuller, who is the inspector in charge of Wainwright district capably filled the position of chairman for the evening, and in introducing the speaker said that he thought that such a gathering as was assembled verified his contention that a greater interest than ever was being taken by all in the education of the young.

The speaker of the evening, in opening his remarks, said that he was glad to have the opportunity of expressing himself before such an audience, and although he had thoroughly enjoyed the visit as a holiday, he was really here on business of an educational nature, and for this reason welcomed the chance of speaking to so many who he felt sure were in some way or other connected with the training and educating of the younger generation.

No country in the world was showing a better interest in education than western Canada, and this was amply proved by the splendid edifices which had been and still were being erected for carrying on of the good work. One thing, however, he had brought forcibly to his attention was the fact that more people seemed to know just how to run the Department of Education than any other department of the government, and this showed a live issue in its affairs.

The department, he said, had sure done good work, and yet they were still open to criticism. He had, himself, struggled with the department in years gone by but he was all too willing to admit that the committee of expert educationalists at present working on the curriculum was probably the finest bunch of learned heads in the world today, for its purpose. The greatest obstacle as he felt that the average parents would not take the interest they should in the children. The average at

HUGE HUNDRED-&-TWENTY DERRICK ERECTED BY IMP. OIL CO.

As we go to press we learn that the big "rotar drill" which the Standard Oil Co. sent up here from Wyoming, and which is operated in connection with a huge structure some hundred and twenty feet high and proportionately strong, through the Imperial Oil Co., are already down some depth and the first hole in their new drilling field just six miles west of town and immediately at Fabyan riding on the G. T. P.

The company fully expect to have this well—the first of four to be sunk here—proved in a couple of weeks, and all of them should be proven by December if no mishap occurs.

This information is from higher officials of the company; and although there is an air of secrecy about the whole business, it seems probable that the rotary drill will be used for about the first 1,000 feet on each hole beyond the standard rig will be put into use.

In an interview with Mr. J. O. Williams, who with Mr. J. G. Morton, of town, spent the whole summer in the study of the Wainwright field, this expert geologist says: "A terrace structure is something new in the Alberta oilfield, most of the drilling having been done on symmetrical and asymmetrical anticlines in the provinces, and for this reason the cost of drilling wells has been very high. A structural terrace usually is found on monoclinal slopes and as most of the oil migrated up monoclinal slopes or up the flanks of a syncline from the bottom of a basin, it follows that in any terrace structure or fold, if it is above the surface of the water the oil will tend to accumulate in the top of the structure. The formation rises gradually towards the center of the movement, but in places this rise is not maintained and over a considerable area the rock here is nearly flat. Beyond this flat the formation rises once more to the crest of the structure. The oil being forced up through the formation and finally arrives at the structural terrace, and there the pressure was not sufficient to force the oil over the many miles of the rock and it accumulated and was held in place by the large body of water behind it."

At Wainwright the formation is undoubtedly a structural terrace. It is seen first on the Battle River, it is again seen as well as in canyons on the east side of the river. From there on to where the river takes a bend in a south-easterly direction it is plainly followed. At Baxter Lake only a few miles east of the river the center of movement is found, making a definite rise of formation to where it once again flattens out on its normal dip. Under these conditions, the soil has accumulated because it is in that rise where it is brought to a stop. West of Fabyan near the town of Phillips there are numerous miles of flat formations, with here and there a slight fold, and this has been proven to be a water-saturated fold formation, and is in the right position to hold the oil in the inner edge of the structure east of Fabyan. Shallow wells are very often productive for many years on this class of terrace formation. Investigation of the Baxter Lake fields promises equal production. The rock at Baxter Lake is the Ribstone Creek sandstone, the base of laves about 1,500 feet above the oil-bearing strata in the Benton shale, but Mr. Williams expects to get oil in the shallow depth and above the Benton formation.

Before the minister spoke, the following well-rendered programme was listened to with great attention and the demand for encores was generously filled:—

Chorus—School Children

Vocal solo—"Time was I rode"—Mrs. G. Hudson.

Reading—"The Strike at school"—Mr. J. W. Stuart.

Vocal solo—"Some time, some day"—Mrs. E. L. Fuller.

Piano solo—Rev. Father Lemaire.

Vocal solo—"Only once more"—Mrs. G. Hudson.

The teachers responsible for the offering by the children were surely have worked hard to have attained the result achieved and are to be congratulated. Messrs. Telford, Bagnall and N. S. Kenny officiated at the piano.

At the close of the evening a delightful little dance was indulged in till the early hours and this proved a fitting climax to the affair.

KEEP IN TOUCH WITH YOUR HOME TOWN

National "Subscribe to Home Town Paper Week."
November 7 to 12

If everyone born and reared in this town had remained here to make his permanent home, we should be a town of many hundreds more population than we now number.

On the other hand, cities and towns elsewhere that have attracted our youth would never have been founded, perhaps, and America would remain as it was in pioneer days—a great continent with a few scattered cities—all too large, all over-congested.

But the opportunity that calls men away from their native homes keeps the great movement alive, with the result that practically every corner of America has in it a representative of Wainwright.

However, the home town always has its interest for the people who heed the call to go elsewhere, and news of its progress and the doings of its people is welcome news to the native and former resident, wherever he may now be located.

Correspondence, however faithful, cannot cover all the news and gossip, and seldom deals with more than family affairs. The perfect medium of course, is the home town newspaper, which prints all the news of all the people. Some of these items, while of limited interest to you, might be of great interest to one away from home.

There is now a nationwide movement on foot, sponsored by the National Editorial Association and other agencies, in which this paper is taking part, looking to a stimulation of interest in the Home Town Paper.

To do our part, we are this week offering an extra copy of "The Star" to every subscriber who will send it to a relative or friend out of town, with a subscription blank. This extra copy is free for the asking by writing or calling at this office. Or, if preferred, we will send free copies to such former residents as you may designate.

Edmonton Journal

The political pot is simmering. In a week or two it will be boiling. The three great parties already have thrown their hats into the ring. Nominating conventions are being held all over the country.

The leaders of the three parties and their supporters are addressing meetings everywhere. They are discussing political questions in a way that they have never been discussed before. The voters themselves are also taking a hand. They are asking questions, and making speeches, and taking a very intelligent interest in the campaign.

And then there is the new group of farmers, led by Mr. Crerar, who are opposing the two Old Parties in many of the rural and semi-rural ridings.

It is an intensely interesting campaign, and only the more daring are attempting to forecast the result.

Premier Meighen is giving an account of his

THE LOCAL PAPER

In a few weeks The Star will have completed the thirteenth year of its existence. During all that time the people of Wainwright and the surrounding district have given generous and loyal support to the paper and, on the other hand, it has been our earnest desire to make The Star of some real service to the community and to have it reflect in creditable manner what is best in the life of the district.

An effort is now being made to largely increase the circulation of the paper and to insure results that will please every subscriber and every advertiser as far as is reasonably possible. In this effort we appeal for the same support as has always been given in the past.

The business men of Wainwright desire a medium whereby they may talk to their customers from time to time in an effective way. Advertisers realize that newspaper advertising has no value unless the paper concerned is consistently read by the people whom they desire to reach. This indicates one function of the local paper.

Then again the discreet publishing of personals and district news creates an atmosphere and establishes bonds of common interest amongst the people of a whole community. This is also a field of usefulness specially open to the weekly paper.

From the standpoint of the outsider a local paper discharges a still more useful function. There is perhaps nothing that gives such a definite impression to an outsider of the spirit and enterprise and progress of a town as the style and quality of the newspaper which it sends out. A paper cannot give service beyond the support it receives and so it may be looked upon as an accurate mirror of the conditions from which it springs.

For all these reasons the local newspaper should challenge the interest and attention of every citizen. As members of a community we should cultivate the community spirit and in our decisions recognize the public as well as the personal standpoint. In the past the people of Wainwright have always recognised these truths and if the support given to The Star in its present effort is in line with the usual Wainwright response there, will be no doubt as to the result.

CANADIAN IRON

The reputed find of a large body of iron ore north of Edmonton is interesting.

Canada possesses iron in abundance. The deposits in Nova Scotia are worked. The combination of iron, coal and the sea found there in close proximity, makes the utilization of those deposits feasible and profitable.

Immense iron areas circle the north shore of Lake Superior. The Ontario iron is less free of sulphur than the iron of the Mesaba Range on the American side of that lake, with which it has not hitherto successfully competed. The employment of new processes in refining may soon develop these resources. The depletion of the Minnesota supply will bring the Canadian iron into demand.

Canada imports huge quantities of American iron ore for her steel plants. We import millions of dollars worth of steel. Were we able to supply our needs by employing Canadian ore, made into pig iron in Canadian furnaces, and converted into steel for our railroad and structural needs, millions of dollars annually would be saved to Canada that now goes into the pockets of American miners and steel workers.

CANADA OR THE PARTY?

Words, words, millions and billions of words. We are figuratively submerged in a sea of printed and spoken oratory, all on the one topic of absorbing interest—the coming Federal elections.

Amateur and professional politicians are trying to out-talk each other; every party, or offshoot of a party, is lauding its own beliefs and howling down those of the other fellow, and when they stop for lack of breath, what has been said or printed?

The whole thing resolves itself into this: the party in power wants to stay in, while the party on the other side of the fence wants to take a turn at governing, consequently each side dons a halo, grasps a hammer and sails in to add to the wordy contest.

We want men in power who are not concerned so much in white washing their own party and applying tar and feathers to all unbelievers as in formulating a sound constructive policy, not for the glorification of party, but for the upbuilding of a Canadian nation.

The fact that a candidate is a "good scout" and can talk at a mark for hours on end does not qualify him to direct our destinies. We hold no brief for any party or belief with the one exception, that we support "Canadianism" instead of "Partyism".

Let us mark our ballots for the man who has "deeds not words" for his platform.—E.C.

SAFETY RULES FOR OPEN FIRES

1. Don't build bonfires for fun.
2. If you must build outdoor fires, be sure that they are cold before you leave them.
3. Don't set dead trees afire. Sometimes they will burn for days.
4. Before lighting on open fire be sure that it is completely enclosed in a stout wire screen.
5. Keep children from playing too near the fire—screen or no screen.
6. Don't throw large pieces of loose paper upon an open fire.
7. Make absolutely certain that the fire is out before going to bed at night.
8. Don't say, "I guess it's all right."
9. Thaw frozen pipes with hot water, not with flame.

Portable gasoline pumps up to ten horse power and capable of forcing water through 1,500 feet of hose are now used in fighting forest fires by Canadian federal and provincial forest services.

When we get an elastic currency it will probably be the kind that contracts.

SPEND CHRISTMAS IN THE OLD COUNTRY

Christmas is a wonderful time to visit the Old Country, renew old acquaintances and have Christmas dinner at home. It is the one season of the year when the old family table is stretched to the limit and loaded with the best in the hand for the yearly family reunion.

This is indeed a year for a reunion, and why should it not be complete. Every convenience in comfort and service is offered by the Canadian Pacific Railway. Through tourist sleepers will be operated from Edmonton, Saskatoon, Calgary, Moose Jaw, Regina and Winnipeg, thus making it possible to go direct to the port of sailing without change or delay.

Through tourist sleeping cars will leave Calgary, November 11th, 13th, 21st and 22nd, December 5th and 9th. From Edmonton November 10th, 12th, 20th, and 21st, December 4th, and 8th.

A postcard to any Canadian Pacific Agent will bring full particulars regarding rates, passports and reservations.

PUMP GUN USE IS PROHIBITED BY REGULATION

The use of a pump gun is prohibited in the shooting of wild game if its magazine is capable of holding more than two shells. Hunters will do well to familiarize themselves with this new regulation which came into force and effect this season at the instance of the Department of the Interior at Ottawa.

A fine up to $300 may be imposed upon any person found guilty of an infraction of the regulations or a term of imprisonment of six months may be imposed if the guilty one defaults in payment of the fine or both a fine and imprisonment may be the penalty. The minimum fine is fixed at $10.

The new regulation governing the point read as follows: "The use of a pump gun or a repeating shotgun is prohibited, unless the magazine has been permanently plugged or altered so that it cannot carry more than two cartridges."

The use of an automatic, swivel or machine gun or battery or any gun larger than gauge 10 is also prohibited.

It is unlawful also to shoot from an automobile, a horse drawn vehicle or an airplane according to the new regulations and a searchlight must not be used.

A summary of the regulations is posted in all police stations and in conspicuous places and the users of firearms are asked to consult the full text of the regulations.

BUSINESS WILL BE SUSPENDED FOR 2 MINUTES NOV. 11th

Ottawa—His Excellency, the Governor-General, has received a dispatch from the secretary of state for the colonies proposing that on Friday, November 11th, the anniversary of the signing of the Armistice here should be a complete suspension of business so far as possible beginning at 11 A. M. and continuing for two minutes. The Canadian government has adopted his suggestion and accordingly the secretary of state for affairs has issued a request the rite be observed throughout the dominion.
